

Chicago Metro History Fair

Special Awards 2020

CHICAGO HISTORY MUSEUM

Russell L. Lewis, Jr. Award for Chicago History

Project: Breaking the Barriers of Residential Segregation in Chicago
(Website)

Student Names: Sofia Penglase and Luciana Costanzo

Russell L. Lewis, Jr. Award for Chicago History

Project: The Early Stages of Jazz Music and the Jazz Scene in Chicago (Website)

Student: Martha Rivera

The Jazz Age

Martha Rivera
The Jazz Age
A240
1,430 words
365 words

Overview

Boundless. "Boundless US History." Lumen, <https://courses.lumenlearning.com/boundless-ushistory/chapter/10-culture-of-change/>.

This is a photo of The King & Carter Jazzing Orchestra. During the jazz age, the popular songs of the time included dance songs, novelty songs, and show tunes, all of which this group and many others provided.

The Jazz Age was a time for new ideas and views on things such as race and gender, as well as huge advances in music, and leading to more genres to come in later years. This era shaped things that would come later in American history, like the Great Depression.

Racial Barrier

Kelly, Erin. "33 Photos From The Height Of The Jazz Age That Are 'The Great Gatsby' Come To Life." All That's Interesting, 19 July 2019, <https://allthatsinteresting.com/roaring-twenties-jazz-age#18>.

This photo showcases King Oliver and his Creole Jazz Band, with Louis Armstrong 4th from the left. This photo was taken in Chicago, but the group's origins are from New Orleans, where jazz came to Chicago from.

These two photos show the innate freedom, joy and openness that jazz brought to the music scene. It's hard to tell if the bands in these photos were made up of white or Black musicians, but they were both part of the jazz scene.

Berrier Award for Suburban History

Project: All American Girls Baseball League (Exhibit)

Students: Alena Layman and Megan Norris

First Division Museum at Cantigny Park Award for Excellence in Military History

Project: *Women's Airforce Service
Pilots (Documentary)*

Students: Anya Spevacek, Mila Wolf
and Lillianna Konrad

Gerber/Hart Library and Archives John D'emilio Award for LGBTQA Rights

Project: Out of the Closet and Onto the Witness Stand: Rose Mary Denman, American Protestantism's First Openly Lesbian Minister
(Exhibit)

Student: Sawyer Anderson

