

We invite you to use this map to help your group explore Catholic Chicago. The map illustrates the six sections of the exhibition and highlights key objects within the gallery.

Model of Holy Family Church, 2005
Explore the domes and spires that dot Chicago's skyline.

First communion dress, 1892
Investigate the connections between community and Catholic traditions.

St. Adrian's school jumper, c. 1985
Discover what made parochial school so popular for Catholic and non-Catholic families.

Cardinal Mundelein's vestments, 1930s
Meet the men and women who dedicated themselves to improving life in Chicago.

Stained-glass window, c. 1920
Learn how the art and architecture of a church reflect the stories of those who built it.

Model of St. Benedict the African-East, 2004
Find out what happened when the Pope decided to modernize the Catholic church.

Chicago Madonna: Urbs in Horto
Krzysztof Wasko, 2007
See how Catholics' strong traditions connect their present to their past.

ENTRANCE

Eucharistic Congress monstrance, 1926
Travel back to the Eucharistic Congress, a "religious world's fair" that put Chicago's Catholics on the map.