

51st Annual Fourth of July Celebration

Celebrate the nation's independence with festivities for the entire family. The 51st Annual Fourth of July programming will include musical performances by the Chicago Pops Concert Band, a color guard salute, patriotic face painting and crafts; and guest speaker, David Hiller, president of the McCormick Foundation will give a patriotic oration. The free event also includes a children's parade led by the World's Tallest Uncle Sam and the firing of the Brown Bess muskets.

The 51st Annual Fourth of July Celebration

Sunday, July 4, 2010

10:00 a.m. – 12 Noon

Uihlein Plaza, Free Admission

Facing Freedom Opening

An opening day of activities is planned for the afternoon of July 4. Facing Freedom, the Museum's new permanent American history exhibition, will open to the public at 12 Noon. Guests will enjoy musical performances and meet historical re-enactors.

Facing Freedom Opening

Sunday, July 4, 2010

12 Noon – 2:00 p.m.

Free Admission until 1:00 p.m.