

I Do! Chicago Ties the Knot* Preview Luncheon

DATE: Friday, May 21, 2010
TIME: 11:00 a.m. luncheon and exclusive preview
PLACE: Chicago History Museum

The Costume Council of the Chicago Historical Society is hosting a preview luncheon in honor of the opening of I Do! Chicago Ties the Knot. This will be the first look at the exhibition with curator, Timothy Long. The luncheon will celebrate many of the themes from the exhibition and the opportunity to view the exhibition before the public.

Tickets to the luncheon are $225 per person. Proceeds from the event support the Museum's costume collection.

FashioNext Finale Event

DATE: Thursday, June 24
TIME: 7:00 p.m.
PLACE: Chicago History Museum

The winner of the Chicago History Museum's FashioNext competition will be announced during the event where finalists Caroline DeVillo, Carla Hwang and Kenneth Park from VWIDON, and Katrin Schnabl will showcase their designs inspired by pieces from the I Do! Chicago Ties the Knot exhibition.

Tickets to the event are $35/$30 members, and $15 for students with ID.

Interview opportunities for both events are available upon request.
