

Abraham Lincoln Transformed

October 10, 2009 through April 12, 2010

The Railsplitter painting, c. 1860. Used by Lincoln supports to exploit his hard working humble origins.

Silk and beaver top hat given to Lincoln to wear during his inauguration ceremonies, c.1860

Reward poster from when Secretary of War Edwin M. Stanton directed the manhunt for the Lincoln conspirators, 1865

Copper slave tags from Charleston, South Carolina, 1817-1860

All images should credit the Chicago History Museum unless otherwise noted.
All images are available by contacting Lauren R. Dolan, 312.799.2161 or dolan@chicagohistory.org.

Benito Juárez and the Making of Modern Mexico

October 10, 2009 through April 12, 2010

"Benito Juárez," by Jorge Gonzalez Camarena, 1968
Oil on Canvas
Instituto Nacional de Antropología e Historia

Death mask of Benito Juárez,
1872
Juan Islas and
Manuel Islas
Varnished
bronze
Instituto
Nacional de Antropología e
Historia

Top hat that belonged to Benito
Juárez, 19th
century
Luis Kubli
Felt, leather, silk
Instituto Nacional
de Antropología e
Historia

