

2021 Chicago Metro History Fair – Junior Division

Papers Advancing to Illinois History Day State Contest (1/2)

Adam O'Mara	How the American Miscommunication of Communism Stunted Political Growth	Skinner North Classical School
Anne Gabrielle Robidas	Henry Gerber: How He Pioneered Communication of Homosexual Civil Rights in the United States of America	Mead Junior High
Ava Donado	The Civil Rights Movement: Changing the World of Art Forever Through Communication	Mayer Elementary
Camilla Forero	Ways of Deaf Communication and How They Have Helped the Deaf Community	Skinner North Classical School
Carolyn Stach	The Goal of Power in the Salem Witch Trials: how the influential people of Salem manipulated and connected the dots between marginalized people and witches to sustain their power.	Quest Academy
Eliana Nieves	The Fallacy of the Miranda Warnings: Police brutality in the interrogation room	Taft Academic Center
Elif Uzunel	The Long Fight for Women's Rights	Science Academy of Chicago
Eviatar Hileli	The Oslo Accords' Failure: Internal Miscommunication and Contradictory Narratives of the Israel-Palestine Conflict	Skinner North Classical School
Fazilet Kazkondu	Title IX: Women's Rights in Sports and Education	Science Academy of Chicago
Galadriel Guerra	War on Drugs and Mass Incarceration	Skinner North Classical School
Greta Lindall	Reading a Taco: How Tacos Communicate Mexican American History and Culture	Skinner North Classical School
Hope Geevarghese	A Calculated March with Suffering for Suffrage	Taft Academic Center
Jack Lyons	A Foundation of Global Communication: The League of Nations Following World War I	Catherine Cook School
Jay Huang	Harold Washington: The Key to Understanding Racism in Chicago	Lane Tech Academic Center
Leyla Yurtsever	The Black Panther Party: Communication and the Second Amendment	Science Academy of Chicago
Lina Holden	Cuban Missile Crisis: How Effective Diplomacy Influenced the Prosperity of America and Caused the Collapse of the Soviet Union	Quest Academy
Mahi Malik	What Got Us Through The Cruel Times: The Chicago Defender	Science Academy of Chicago

2021 Chicago Metro History Fair – Junior Division Papers Advancing to Illinois History Day State Contest (2/2)

Mina Witkovsky	Virginia Slims: Communicating Feminism Through an Ad Campaign	Skinner North Classical School
Morgan Tillis	Historical Content of the Chicago Defender: Going from Good to Great	Lenart
Neena Agrawal	From Darwin to the American Eugenics Movement: Miscommunication of On the Origin of Species	Skinner North Classical School
Noah Dons	Move to the North: How the Chicago Defender affected The great migration	Lane Tech Academic Center
Peter Greeley	Seeing is Believing: Emmett Till’s Effect on the Civil Rights Movement	Lenart
Riley Wold	Cuban Missile Crisis: How Communication Allowed the Closest Event to Nuclear War to Deescalate	Quest Academy
Sofia Arroyo	Radio Soap Operas	St. Mary School - Riverside
Thomas Colony	Comparing the Effect of US-Sponsored Media Broadcasting Styles in the Hungarian Uprising to the Broadcasting Style in the Prague Spring	St. Luke (River Forest)
Tylar Mayberry	A Tale of Two Countries Jim Crow Laws and Apartheid: How Institutional and Systemic Racism Has Been Unjust for People of Color	St. Giles
Yakup Uysal	The Cowboy’s Influence on Society and Cinema	Science Academy of Chicago
Zuri Belcore	The Hidden Communicators: Native American Code Talkers	Skinner North Classical School