WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S. Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyright material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted works. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," the user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law. The granting of permission to publish or the act of producing photocopies by the Chicago History Museum/Chicago Historical Society does not absolve users of materials from securing permission from copyright. Applicants assume all responsibility for questions of copyright and invasion of privacy that may arise in copying and in the use made of the photographic copy.

There is a limit of 50 pages copied per book.

Reproductions are NOT made of city directories, newspapers, scrapbooks, maps, fold-outs, color photographs, and photographs created prior to 1900.

We reserve the right to refuse to copy materials that may be damaged in the process.

Please return this copy with payment [check, money order, or charge] to:
