

MUSEUM MAP

CHICAGO
HISTORY
MUSEUM

FEATURED HIGHLIGHTS

★ CITY ON FIRE: CHICAGO 1871

Designed for children 13 and under, City on Fire offers visitors of all ages a chance to learn what life was like before, during, and after the Great Chicago Fire.

★ DESIGNING FOR CHANGE: CHICAGO PROTEST ART OF THE 1960s-70s

See how Chicago activists in the 1960s and '70s used design to amplify their visions of a more just world and to fight for social change.

★ CHICAGO: CROSSROADS OF AMERICA

Explore the city's history through a series of galleries that illustrate Chicago's crossroads nature and highlight artifacts from the Museum's remarkable collection.

Water Fountain

Elevator

Stairwell

Emergency Exit

Men's Restroom

Women's Restroom

Family Restroom

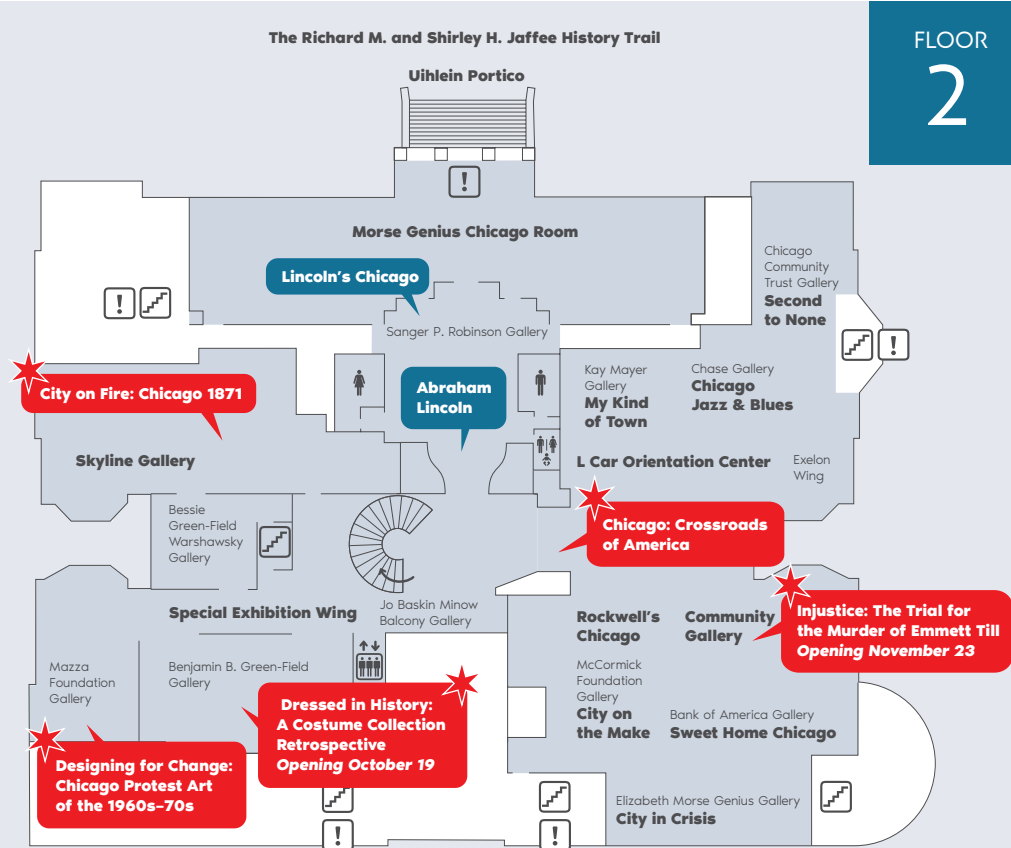

Coat Check

Ticket Desk

FLOOR

2

★ FACING FREEDOM IN AMERICA

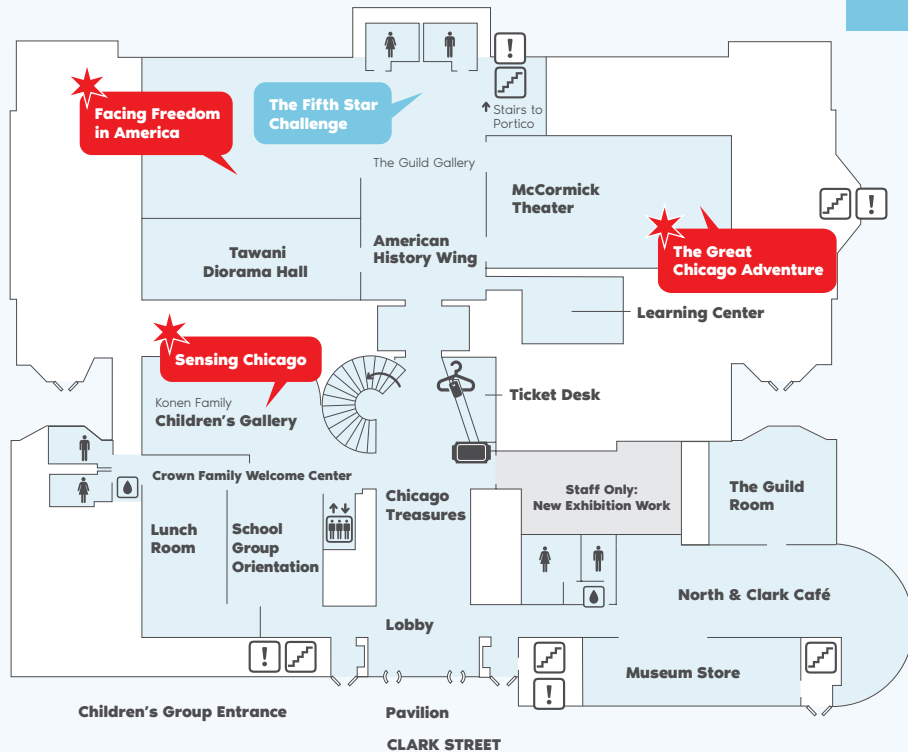

From women's suffrage to Japanese internment, Facing Freedom uses images, artifacts, and interactive elements to explore some of the ways Americans have struggled over the meaning of freedom.

★ THE GREAT CHICAGO ADVENTURE

In this exciting all-ages film, travel through time with Roger and his babysitter, Jean, to see major events in Chicago's history. Showtimes are posted at the Ticket Desk and theater door.

★ SENSING CHICAGO

Stimulate your senses as you explore the sights, sounds, smells, and tastes of past and present-day Chicago.

Floor 3 (not pictured)

The Abakanowicz Research Center is located on the third floor. Admission is free; register at the Ticket Desk.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

DO YOU HAVE A RESTAURANT AND A MUSEUM STORE?

Yes, the North & Clark Café and the Museum Store are on the 1st floor near the entrance of the Museum. The Café closes approximately 1 hour prior to the Museum closing. The Museum Store is open during Museum hours.

CAN I VISIT THE RESEARCH CENTER?

Please inquire at the Ticket Desk. Admission to the Abakanowicz Research Center (ARC) is free. Visit chicagohistory.org/research for ARC hours. Masks are required in the ARC.

CAN I BECOME A MEMBER OF THE MUSEUM?

Absolutely, and the price of your ticket can be applied to membership! Join today for exclusive access to events, exhibition previews, discounts, and more.

WIFI PASSWORD

Network: CHM | Password: CHMuseum

JAFFEE HISTORY TRAIL

The Jaffee History Trail is an interpretive path incorporating features such as a native species garden, the Couch Tomb, and a 13,000-pound metal relic from the 1871 Great Chicago Fire.

CHICAGO HISTORY MUSEUM

1601 N Clark St, Chicago, IL 60614 | (312) 642-4600 | chicagohistory.org

f @chicagohistory | X @chicagomuseum