

2019 Illinois History Day Award Winners

The following Chicago Metro History Fair students earned awards at Illinois History Day 2019. Note that selection for awards is independent of the NHD advancement process.

MacGregor National History Day Teacher Award – IL Nominees

- Bryanne Roemer, Maine West High School, Des Plaines
- Sophia Logothetis, DeWitt Clinton Elementary School, Chicago

Labor History Society Awards

- Stephen C. Thomas, De La Salle Institute, Chicago; Black Heroes on Fire! Engine Co. 21: The Men and their Mission
- Annie Gaughan, Maine South High School, Park Ridge; Feminism and Unionism in Chicago

Illinois College – Outstanding Exhibit

- Anabella Lau, Edison Regional Gifted Center, Chicago; Big Movement for Small Class Size

Illinois College – Outstanding Website

- Nadia Hernandez, Grayslake North High School, Grayslake; Chicago Bilingual Education

Millikin University

- Jacinth Valera, Maine West High School, Des Plaines; The Day Chicago Cried: Our Lady of Angels Fire
- Olivia Pound, Grayslake High, Grayslake; Environmentalism

National Society of Colonial Dames in Illinois

- Russell Campbell, Immanuel Lutheran School, Palatine; The Battle of Fort Dearborn

Judy Baar Topinka Foundation Award

- Samantha Park, Skinner North Classical School, Chicago; NAWSA: Repression on the Road to Women's Greatest Triumph

Daughters of the American Revolution

- Mia Fritsch-Anderson, Pritzker Elementary, Chicago; Smashing Codes but Not the Glass Ceiling
- Avery Langdon and Alexis Rootberg, Vernon Hills High, Vernon Hills; Women in 1893 Fair
- Grace Collins, Lucy Miller and Sophie Meyer, St. Josaphat School, Chicago; Florence Kelley and the Children